

Send Them To A Camp Where Extraordinary Memories Are Made

INTRODUCING IBEROSTAR STAR CAMP

Vacations not only allow children to relax and forget about schoolwork, they also let kids explore and make memories. This philosophy is what inspires Star Camp, the children's activity program at our family-friendly resorts. Star Camp bases its approach on the theory of multiple intelligences, which advocates personal growth through cooperation. This way, children are encouraged to interact and work together, taking part in games and other recreational and educational activities.
